Gentlemen in the headmaster of a Taluk The carpentry class mentioned in the connection with the A V School at that station need not be given by certain teachers employed in that institution - It has already reported to have made a good beginning - There is thus no real analogy between it & the Talakad Industrial School -

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that the Headmaster and Assistant masters of the Gonbidnm Anglo Vernacular School have started a Carpentry School in connection with the School It is conducted by three of the masters of the Anglo-Vernacular School, one of whom knows both Carpentry and Smiths work It has 10 Brahmn boys & other Hindus and 2 Muhammadans who are all pupils of the A V School The three masters of the A V School referred to above, and two leading men of the town form the Committee and are reported to be showing commendable zeal and earnestness in working the School The Deputy Inspector recommends a small grant of

Rs 13/- a month per and of the school of which Rs 5/-
is proposed to be given as an allowance to each of the two masters, who teach, and Re 1/- to the peon of the A V School for the extra work he does in the Carpentry School and the remaining Rs 2/- will be used for contingencies I think the efforts of the Masters of the A V School at Gorakhpur to maintain a Carpentry School and interest their boys in manual work deserve encourage ment I therefore request that Government may be pleased to sanction a monthly grant of Rs 13/- for the school from the savings of Rs 2388/- under Grants in aid in the State Famd Budget, pointed out in my letter No 9663/396 of the 3rd may last wherein I have recommended a monthly grant of Rs 10/- to the Devaraj Bahadur Famd for Scholarships to Widow pupils in Government and Aided Schools
